A Community Conversation Part II: Keeping Our Children Safe With Facts Not Fear

(Sex Offenders, CORI, Legislation, and the Media)

Panel discussion with the following community leaders:

- Community Voices: Laurie Myers & Pamela LaBarre
- Westford Police Chief Thomas McEnaney
- Safety Officer Mike Croteau, WPD
- State Representative James Arciero

Wednesday, March 23, 2011

7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Blanchard Middle School Auditorium

Parents, teachers, and anyone else who works with children are encouraged to learn:

- What is the definition of a sex offender?
- What is the difference between Level 2 and Level 3 offenders?
- What can we do to add Level 2 offenders to the Internet?
- What is the Sex Offender Registry Board (SORB)?
- What is a Criminal Offender Record Information (CORI)?
- What information do I need to keep my child safe?
- What role does the media play in keeping our community safe?

This event is FREE and open to the public.

VOICES offers advocacy, resources, and educational information to community groups, individuals, and community leaders, with the goal of raising awareness regarding sexual assault, child assault, Internet predators, and missing and endangered children.
