

Lowell General Hospital and the Westford Parent Connection Present

Race To Nowhere

The Dark Side Of America's Achievement Culture

Thursday, March 10, 2011

7:00 - 9:00 p.m.

Westford Academy Performing Arts Center

This award-winning documentary focuses on the pressures students and educators face in a culture obsessed with achievement, competition, and performance. Kids, teachers, and parents share their concerns about expectations, stress, and illness. The 90-minute film will be followed by a Q&A session with local experts, including:

Dr. Madhavi Kamireddi, Adult, Child & Adolescent Psychiatrist, Medical Director, New England Center For Mental Health

Dr. Mark Gilchrist, Chief Of Pediatrics, Lowell General Hospital

Sue Hanly, RN, NCSN, Westford Board Of Health

This event is sponsored exclusively by Lowell General Hospital and is FREE and open to the public. However, registration is encouraged. For tickets, go to <http://www.racetonowhere.com/screenings/westford-academy>. Seating is on a first-come, first-served basis.

For more information about Lowell General Hospital, go to <http://www.lowellgeneral.org/>. For other questions, go to the Westford Parent Connection's site at www.westford.com/wpc/.

